THE CRUCIBLE
Written by Arthur Miller A powerful tale of intolerance, oppression and small town bigotry, Arthur Miller's The Crucible is acknowledged as one of the great plays of the 20th Century set against a background of the Salem witch-hunt of 1692, this play draws many parallels with the McCarthyism which gripped America in the 1950's, and still casts a shadow over the country today.
Tickets: £6.00, Concessions £4.00

TALKING HEADS:

A WOMAN OF NO IMPORTANCE and
A CHIP IN THE SUGAR

Written by Alan Bennett.
Two richly comic, moving short plays by one of England's greatest living writers, the author of The Madness of King George. This production is currently touring the country and promises an evening of warm humour. A Woman of No Importance follows the life of Peggy Schofield (Miss).
Persistently cheerful, blind to the feelings of others and, at heart, terribly lonely. A Chip in the Sugar is an acute study of the middle aged man still living under his mothers forgetful tyranny. Will they be parted?
Tickets £7.00, Concessions £6.00
